Pfizer PAC ~ Our Voice in the Political Process

A Message from Rich Bagger, Chairman, Pfizer PAC

Dear Colleagues:

Every day, Pfizer colleagues around the world work to discover, develop, and bring to patients life-changing medicines. Part of Our Path Forward as the world's premier biopharmaceutical company is to engage stakeholders on the value these innovations bring to patients, doctors, payers, and governments.

This is an exciting and challenging time for health care in America and for our sector. Health reform legislation being considered by Congress done right can expand coverage, improve quality, and provide value to patients. Done wrong, legislation could restrict patients' access to treatment and stifle innovation in the discovery and development of new cures.

Working to help shape health care legislation is a key element of how we engage stakeholders, and a strong Political Action Committee (PAC) can help Pfizer do that by building relationships with public officials who support access and innovation in health care. Pfizer PAC supports candidates who are committed to maintaining and improving incentives for innovation and protecting and expanding patients' access to treatment.

I am pleased to share this political contributions report, which includes a list of candidates and political committees that the Pfizer PAC supported during the first half of 2009. Pfizer PAC is nonpartisan; we were able to support 265 candidates during this six month period in all levels of government and from both political parties. I hope that you will take a few moments to review this report and see which candidates Pfizer PAC supported in your state and district.

We will continue to engage our elected officials to ensure that we have a strong voice in policy discussions on health reform and other issues that affect Pfizer and the patients we serve.

Thank you for your support,

PFIZER PAC

Our Voice in the Political Process

What is a PAC?

PAC stands for Political Action Committee. A political action committee is a government-regulated organization that anyone can form to raise money for political campaign donations. PACs are formed by individuals, non-profits, and even many major corporations.

Who Receives Pfizer PAC Contributions?

Pfizer PAC is nonpartisan. It supports Democrats and Republicans alike. In the first half of 2009, Pfizer PAC supported 265 candidates. True to its nonpartisan values, Pfizer PAC is committed to support candidates from both political parties who share Pfizer's vision and values for health care. When choosing to make a contribution to a candidate, the Pfizer PAC considers candidates' views on issues that impact Pfizer and its employees as well as the presence of Pfizer facilities or employees in the candidate's district or state. A complete list of Pfizer PAC and state corporate political contributions for January – June 2009 is included in this report.

PFIZER PAC & POLITICAL CONTRIBUTIONS GOVERNANCE POLICY

Pfizer complies fully with all federal, state, and local laws and reporting requirements governing PAC and corporate political contributions.

Pfizer has a Corporate Policy Procedure (#509) that requires all PAC and corporate political contributions to be compiled and published semi-annually in a report that is made available to employees, shareholders, and the public, and posted on the Company's website at www.pfizer.com under "About Pfizer" in the Corporate Governance section.

Pfizer also requests that trade associations receiving total payments of $100,000 or more from Pfizer in a given year report the portion of Pfizer dues or payments used for expenditures or contributions that, if made directly by Pfizer, would not be deductible under section 162(e)(1)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code. We are disclosing such information received from our trade associations in this report.

Pfizer has a PAC Steering Committee comprised of six colleagues who review and approve all PAC and corporate political contributions on a monthly basis. To ensure adequate representation, Steering Committee members represent different divisions within the Pfizer organization. The PAC Steering Committee evaluates candidates on a basis of their views on issues that impact Pfizer and its colleagues. It also takes note of whether Pfizer facilities or colleagues reside in a candidate's district or state. In addition, all PAC and corporate contribution requests are shared with the Pfizer Political Contributions Policy Committee for review. The Political Contributions Policy Committee is responsible for governing the Pfizer PAC.
